

Notice of Health Information Exchange

Vermont Gynecology participates in health information exchange with other participating doctors or healthcare providers, this allows your health records to be in one secure place, and ready for the next doctor you see so they know your health history.

Participate

If you want the benefit of all your providers having your medical record you have nothing to do, other than sign below. If your providers participate, your records will be shared on the Health Information Exchange.

Opt-Out

You can choose to not have your records shared with providers by checking the opt-out box below.
